THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS

OF THE

SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND, HALIFAX, N. S.

INTRODUCTION. The work of the past year has been carried forward successfully and under God's blessing the school has reached a high standard of efficiency.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT. The Superintendent's Report gives full detail as to the work of the several departments of the school, and pays a well-merited tribute to the zeal and energy of the teaching staff and the officials of the institution. Special reference is made to the education of a deaf-blind boy now in the school and to the progress which has so far been made in the instruction of this most interesting lad.

The report calls attention to the formation by the graduates of the school of an organization known as the Maritime Association for the Blind and bespeaks for this Association the cordial support of the public. Your Board realizing the importance of the work which is to be undertaken by the Maritime Association for the Blind desire to express their hearty approval of the movement and their earnest hope that it may be fraught with blessings to those for whose welfare it has been established.

Schoolable Blind Children. During the year a circular letter with a return post card was sent to the public school teachers of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick requesting the names, ages, and addresses of all Blind persons under 21 years of age who, on account of lack of sight, were unable to attend the public schools. As a result of this inquiry the names of 33 possible pupils were secured and efforts are now being made to impress the parents of these children with the practicability of the education of the blind and with the importance of having their children enter the school with as little delay as possible. It may appear surprising to intelligent men and women that the parents of blind children should need to be impressed with the necessity of educating their children but when we consider that for centuries blind persons have been forced to lead lives of helpless dependence, that the public mind is imbued with the traditional idea that blindness is an insuperable obstacle to success, and that through mistaken kindness the parents of blind children desire to keep them at home, it is more surprising that the attendance of pupils in the school is as large as it is. It speaks well for the foresight and intelligence of the people of the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland that the percentage of schoolable blind children in attendance at this institution is as large as that of any similar institution in Canada or the United states.

Domestic Department. Our resident school population including pupils, officials and members of the teaching and domestic staffs, numbers 175 persons. To comfortably lodge and feed this large household requires constant and careful thought and supervision. In order to insure the comfort and well-being of the staff and the pupils, the housekeeping of the institution is divided into four departments each of which has a responsible official at its head, viz: housekeeper, boys' matron, girls' matron and matron of the junior department. These officials make regular daily reports to the office from which centre the whole establishment is administered. An idea of the work involved in carrying on the domestic end of the institution may be gathered when it is understood that the floor space of the establishment has an area of 71,472 square feet, or upwards of one and a half acres, that the whole of this space is in daily use and requires daily attention in order to insure scrupulous cleanliness; that three meals have to be cooked and served daily for 175 people; that 175 beds have to be made up every morning; that provision has to be made for the bathing of the pupils, the repairing of their clothing; the listing, laundrying and distribution of clothing, table and bed linen, and that all of this work has to be efficiently and systematically carried on so as not to interfere with the various educational departments of the school.

Your Board feel satisfied that the Domestic Department of the school is well ordered, that it is being economically administered and that the well-being and health of the pupile is made a first consideration.

MAINTENANCE. For the past few years your Board have found it impossible to carry on the school in its present state of efficiency with a limited income at its command, and this year a large deficit on current account has to be faced. It is evident that unless an increased income can be secured the educational advantages now given to the pupils will have to be curtailed. In every department of the school rigid economy has been exercised but owing to the increased cost of everything it has been found impossible to keep the expenditure within the limit of our present income. Under these circumstances it is gratifying to report that in response to the application of your Board the governments of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick have increased the annual grant per pupil from $180.00 to $200.00, and that the Government and Legislature of Prince Edward Island has increased its annual grant to the school to a sum equivalent to $200.00 for each pupil in attendance from the Island Province. The Government of Newfoundland now has the matter of an increased grant per pupil under consideration and your Board anticipate a favorable response. With the increased allowances from the several provinces our financial position will be greatly improved and we hope that within a measurable time a like increase in the income arising from invested bequests will enable us to carry on the institution so as to have the yearly balance on the right side of the ledger. We sincerely hope that the friends of the school will carefully study the treasurer's statement so that they may realize some of the difficulties with which your Board have had to contend. Increased income means increased opportunities for young blind persons to be prepared for the battle of life. A decreased income means a less efficient school and fewer opportunities for those deprived of sight.

THE SUPERINTENDENT. Our esteemed Superintendent has during this year experienced the greatest affliction that can be sent to any man, in the loss of his dear wife who for so many years laboured faithfully and loyally with him in the upbuilding of the institution.

Mrs. Fraser was a woman of unusual gifts and of a character and personality so strong and yet so loving and gentle that it was a privilege to have known her. Possessed of literary talents of a high order, she was indeed an ideal helpmate to her devoted husband. Throughout the whole of her long and trying illness, her interest in the institution never flagged, and the memory of her beautiful unselfish life will long be cherished in the hearts and minds of everyone connected with the school.

THE DEAF BLIND BOY, ALBION NICKERSON, AND TEACHER

Dr. Fraser's fixed determination to make this institution second to none on this continent renders him untiring in his efforts to improve it in every possible way with all the means at his disposal.

His management and his personal supervision of every detail is simply marvellous. While his energy is constantly exercised in curtailing every expense which does not conflict with the success of the school.

As the Executive Officer of our Board he is untiring in his efforts to make us thoroughly acquainted with everything in connection with the management of the institution, and we as a Board trust he may long be spared to continue to hold his very responsible position.

Mr. Thos. Ritchie. It is with regret that your Board records the death of Mr. Thomas Ritchie who for the past 17 years had been a member of the Board of Managers. Mr. Ritchie took a deep interest in the welfare of the blind and was ever ready to make generous contributions towards the funds of the school.

Attending Physician, Oculist and Dental Surgeon. Your Board are deeply grateful to Dr. A. W. H. Lindsay, Dr. E. A. Kirkpatrick and Dr. A. C. Cogswell for the professional services which they have rendered to the pupils of the school free of charge, and for their kindly interest in the health and well-being of our boys and girls.

Bequests. Your Board gratefully acknowledge the receipt of the following bequests: Estate of Jairus Hart, Halifax, $24,358.72; estate of J. P. Mott, Halifax, (additional) $1730.77; estate of R. T. Forrestall, Halifax, $500.00; estate of T. E. Kenny, Halifax, $400.00; estate of G. Pugsley, Amherst, (balance) $125.00; estate of J. B. Bland, Halifax, (additional), $50.00, and estate of John Naylor, Halifax, (additional), $40.00 The receipt of these bequests is most gratifying to your Board and may be regarded as an indication of the warm interest taken in the welfare of the blind by the public spirited men and women of this country.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Your Board gratefully acknowledge the donations and thanksgiving offerings receiving during the year. They also desire to express their thanks to the gentlemen who have from time to time addressed the pupils, and to the railways and steamship companies for courtesies extended to the pupils in travelling to and from their homes.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

CHARLES ARCHIBALD,

President Board of Managers.

THE SCHOOL. During the past year the work of the several departments of the school has been effectively carried on and the results have been most satisfactory. The teachers have shown commendable zeal and energy and have discharged their respective duties ably and well. The pupils have appreciated the educational facilities which have been placed within their reach and with very few exceptions have proved themselves diligent students.

THE STAFF. Mr. T. A. Hubley who entered the school as a pupil in 1892, and who became a teacher in the Musical Department in 1900, resigned his position in June last having accepted an appointment with the W. H. Johnson Company of Halifax. Mr. Hubley is an energetic and capable young man with a natural aptitude for business.

At the close of the school year Miss Mary Withrow of Elmsdale, N. S., and Miss Nettie J. Hartling of Spanish Ship Bay, N. S., resigned their positions as teachers in the Literary Department. The vacancies have been filled by Miss Clara Deckman of Bridgetown, N. S., and Miss Sarah M. Hutt of Dartmouth.

Graded Musical Course. In another portion of this report will be found the programme of the annual musical recital given by the pupils in the assembly hall of the school on the evening of May 10th, 1909. The programme was admirably carried out and illustrated the advantages of the graded system adopted in 1907. As the majority of our pupils will maintain themselves as teachers of music it is of the utmost importance that the instruction given them should be systematic and that the course of musical study should be steadily progressive. Students in our musical department are stimulated by the desire to have their names enrolled in higher grades and since their work has been systematized they themselves can judge of the progress that they are making.

Four new pianos were purchased for the department during the year and the equipment is up to date in all particulars.

At the close of the school in June last Arthur Lindsay of St. John, N. B., was awarded a diploma as a teacher of music and also a certificate as a pianoforte tuner.

Physical Training. In 1877 the first gymnasium in connection with this school was erected. From that date until the present time the pupils have received systematic physical training. As an earnest of what was being done for the physical development of the pupils it was arranged in May last to give a public exhibition so that the supporters and friends of the school might see for themselves the results of the training given in our gymnastic department. The following account is culled from the columns of the Halifax Herald of May 4th, 1909.

"An interesting display of gymnastics was given last evening at the School for the Blind under the direction of W. G. MacKinnon and Miss Josie Crichton. The auditorium of the school was filled with a large number of interested spectators. The occasion was an elaborate exhibition of gymnastic feats of a character novel in the public exercises of our schools. In these days of anti-tuberculosis leagues and such health preserving organizations the physique of our youth must be an affair of the greatest moment and in this public display and encouragement of physical culture the School for the Blind bids fair to lead the way. Four of the five classes that took part were directed by W. G. MacKinnon, the instructor at the Y. M. C. A., and the fifth, the class in elocution, was under Miss Josie Crichton. Many of the feats were such as would be attended with much difficulty and even some danger on the first attempt, but were performed with admirable precision and confidence. The work on the parallel bars and the pyramid building were especially interesting features. The musical accompaniments to the marching and various forms of drilling were rendered on the piano in a most commendable manner by Miss Elizabeth Allison.

The entertainment opened with a few remarks from Dr. Fraser, who explained that physical training was no new thing in the School for the Blind, but during the last four years, since the occupation of the new building, their facilities had favored its development, and he considered the work under Mr. MacKinnon so good that the public ought to know something of what is being done. The programme opened with a selection, "Our Commander," from the mandolin club.

The first number in the gymnastic display was by the junior boys, who wore a uniform of the singlet and trousers of the regular gymnasium suit. It was an exhibition of the ordinary exercises in the ranks followed by a wand drill which was very prettily executed and, like most of the numbers, performed to music. The next was one of the most graceful features of the evening, a series of folk dances by twenty of the senior girls, who appeared to excellent advantage in their costumes of blue sailor suits. The primary flag and dumb-bell drill made a most favorable impression and was generously applauded.

The apparatus work of the senior boys was, perhaps, the number of the greatest variety and interest. The feats required much daring and agility, and numbers of the performers received the special applause of the spectators. The work of Charles McInnes and Francis Muise was particularly good. The turning the hand-springs and the elephant-role afforded much amusement.

Miss Crichton's class followed with a display of elocution movements.

The programme was here varied by another selection from the mandolin club, "College Recollections Waltz." Following this came the building of the human pyramids. It was participated in by from eight to ten persons. The fourth of these, in which the one at the top stood some fifteen feet above the platform, according to the applause of the spectators, was pronounced best.

In the tug-of-war, Nova Scotia against the world—that is the representatives of the other provinces—the laurels were awarded to Nova Scotia, which won the best two out of three. All the participants now marched in, drew up in line, and closed the meeting by singing the national anthem."

HEALTH. During the year there were in all eight cases of more or less serious illness one of which terminated fatally. Willie Taylor, aged 9 years, of St. John's, Newfoundland, entered the school in September, 1908. After spending the summer months with his parents in St. John's he returned to the school at the opening of the present term in apparently good health. Several weeks later he was suddenly taken ill and the attending physician, Dr. A. W. H. Lindsay, having pronounced his trouble to be appendicitis the lad was removed to the Victoria General Hospital where an operation was performed.

His condition was found to be critical and while hopes of his recovery wore entertained he passed away quietly on October 10th. The remains were forwarded to his sorrowing parents for interment in St. John's. The death of this bright and promising little boy was sincerely mourned by his teachers and by the pupils of the school.

With the exceptions to which reference has been made the pupils have enjoyed excellent health and the work of the several departments has progressed without interruption.

Deaf-Blind Boy. One of the most interesting pupils now attending this school is a boy named Albion Nickerson who was born in Tidville, Digby County, Nova Scotia, on June 25th, 1896. When six months old he had a severe illness which resulted in the loss of both sight and hearing. He entered this institution in April 1907, at which time his mind was almost a blank, his temper uncontrollable, his habits undesirable and his physique weak and puny. I realized that the intellectual training of a boy in such a condition was practically impossible, and that efforts should first be made to train him in habits of cleanliness and to give him regular outdoor exercise. He was next placed in the Kindergarten class and a beginning was made in teaching him the ordinary kindergarten occupations. For many months there appeared to be but little improvement in the boy's mental condition but as he grew more robust and his interest became awakened he ceased to give way to fits of temper and began to take an eager interest in everything that he could recognize by touch. As a means to his development his teacher made him responsible for the taking out and putting away of the appliances used in the schoolroom. MARITIME ASSOCIA ON FOR THE BLIND. While the graduates of the s ol have in the main met with gratifying success t have been those who have found it difficult to t part in the activities of the workaday world. The physical disadvantage of blindness is in itself no easy matter to overcome but when to this is added the same mental and temperamental short comings as mark a percentage of persons with or without sight it can readily be understood why certain blind persons have failed to achieve success. Many years ago a Loan Fund was established in connection with this school. From this fund helpful advances of money have from time to time been made to deserving graduates and these loans though small have been a material help to many. I have long felt that this work of assisting deserving graduates could be greatly developed and it is gratifying to record that in June last a number of the more successful graduates of the school met at the institution and decided to organize a society for the express purpose of helping the less successful blind to help themselves. The organization has been named "The Maritime Association for the Blind." It is well officered and includes as members some of the most energetic and enterprising gradnates of the school. The Association proposed to work in conjunction with the school to forward the interests of the blind of the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland. It purposes establishing a Loan and Aid Fund and expending the income arising therefrom in helping the less successful blind to win success. I bespeak for this Association the sympathy and hearty co-operation of the friends of the blind in Eastern Canada. Every church in the country has its society though which the less fortunate members of the congregation are helped and encouraged. Every city in the land has its organizations whereby work is provided for those who are willing to work but who find it difficult to fight the battle of life single-handed. In the same way the Maritime Association for the Blind has open to it a wide field of usefulness. Through its timely aid blind persons may be encouraged to overcome temporary difficulties and through its beneficient influence it is hoped that every blind person who has the ability and capacity to do anything whereby he may earn an honest livelihood may be guided to the special field of labor for which he is adapted and may be filled with fresh hope and confidence in himself. The formation of this association is a great gratification to me. First, because its affairs will in the main be managed by graduates of this school. Second, because I believe that intelligent and enthusiastic work along the lines which the association has laid down will be of great advantage to many deserving blind persons. Third, because I believe that this association is undertaking a unique work among and for the blind, a work fraught with great possibilities for good not only for the blind of these provinces but for the blind of other countries.

Conclusion. In conclusion, I desire to thank the Board of Managers for the cordial support they have extended to me and for earnest efforts they have made to promote the welfare of those deprived of sight.

Free Circulating Library School for the Blind.

THIS Library, which is located in the School for the Blind at Halifax, N. S., was established in 1881. It contains a large number of books and pamphlets printed in the Braille Point system, and Dr. Moon's type for the aged. Since the first of November, 1898, embossed books for the Blind have, by the authority of the Parliament of Canada, and by the order of the Postmaster-General, been transmitted through the mails free of charge.

The books are circulated among the graduates of the School, and among the adult-blind who have been taught to read in their own homes. Each year the call for books has increased, and each year we have tried to add to the Library the latest publications printed in Great Britain, as well as a number of hand-made books and pamphlets written out by the graduates of the School, and by the members of the Library League.
